

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

A P R E S I D E N T ' S V I S I O N

PRIMARY SOURCE WORKSHEET

GRANT E. HAMILTON, "I RATHER LIKE THAT IMPORTED AFFAIR," PUCK, SEPTEMBER 21, 1904.

Library of Congress, Prints and Photographs Collection

For related educational resources, visit www.presidentsvision.org

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

A P R E S I D E N T ' S V I S I O N

QUESTIONS

Answer the following questions on a separate sheet of paper.

1. What are the labels underneath each of the four hats?
2. What does the cartoonist intend each hat to say about Washington, Lincoln, Grant, and Roosevelt?
3. Use your textbook and other reliable sources to list at least three major international conflicts involving the United States during Theodore Roosevelt's presidency.
4. Define imperialism. How does the cartoonist feel about U.S. imperialism? Explain your answer using details from the cartoon.
5. How would this cartoonist describe Roosevelt's presidential vision?
6. What effect do you think the cartoonist intended his work to have on his audience in 1904?

For related educational resources, visit www.presidentsvision.org

