

2020 LINDEN HECK HOWELL TEXAS HISTORY GRANT

Humanities Texas is pleased to request proposals for projects that develop educational materials or resources focusing on Texas history. These resources should be pedagogically sound and grounded in strong scholarship; they may be in print or digital form. Projects that address a recognized curricular need at the primary or secondary level are especially encouraged.

Awards

Awards will range from $1,500 to $10,000. Partial awards are possible.

How to apply

Please follow the instructions, and use the appropriate forms, for applying for a Humanities Texas Media Grant.

Application deadlines and instructions

Please submit a letter of intent by August 17, 2020. Applications must be postmarked on or before September 15, 2020. Follow the submission instructions detailed in the Media Grant application form.

Award decisions

Projects will be evaluated on the quality of their conception and design, the strength of their pedagogical and scholarly components, and the extent to which they meet the needs of teachers and students of Texas history across the state. Proposals for institutes and workshops will not be considered.

Previous winners

The Humanities Texas website includes a list of previous Howell grant recipients. Visit www.humanitiestexas.org/education/tx-history-initiative.

Linden Heck Howell

This opportunity is made possible by the Linden Heck Howell Memorial Fund. The Fund was established in memory of Ms. Howell, former member and chair of our board of directors, as a lasting tribute to her service to the organization and her commitment to the study of Texas history. Ms. Howell served on the board from 1996 to 1999, during which time she made significant contributions to the vitality of not only the Texas council, but also the national Federation of State Humanities Councils. Her commitment to the humanities inspired family, friends, and colleagues alike.

This fund has also made possible the Linden Heck Howell Outstanding Teaching of Texas History Award, presented annually by Humanities Texas, which carries a prize of $5,000, with an additional $500 to the winning teacher's school.

Additional funding for this initiative is provided by the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Questions

Please contact the Humanities Texas grants staff at (512) 440-1991 or grants@humanitiestexas.org.