

A President's Vision Student Poster Contest: Registration Form

During the 2013-14 academic year, Humanities Texas will hold a contest for students to design their own A President's Vision posters.

Students may select any U.S. president. Posters may be paper-based or digital. As with the posters Humanities Texas developed, each student's poster should identify the "presidential vision" of a U.S. president and use explanatory text and primary sources to illustrate how that president pursued that vision during his term(s).

Eligibility: Any Texas student in grade 6-12 may enter the competition.

Submission Guidelines: Teachers must submit entries on behalf of their students. Please see the full contest guidelines and submission instructions on the Humanities Texas website: www.presidentsvision.org

Deadline: Submissions must be postmarked by Friday, March 7, 2014.
