Display start date {Character limit: 10}

Grant period start date {Character limit: 10}

This date should encompass program planning and promotion, not just the exhibition dates. The start date must be the first day of the month.

You must submit this application at least six weeks before the start of the grant period.

Grant period end date {Character limit: 10}

This date should encompass program conclusion, evaluation, and final grant fund expenditures. The end date must be the last day of the month.

Grant periods may not last less than 2 months or more than 12 months. Applicants seeking a grant period of more than 12 months must request approval in the post-award stage.

Program summary {Character limit: 720}

Provide a brief summary of the program (120 words or less). If Humanities Texas supports the program, we will use this summary in promotional materials and reports.

Please refer to this document for program summary examples.

Program goals, outcomes, and/or products {Character limit: 2000}

Provide a description of your program's goals, outcomes, and/or products. Include the following:

- The primary goal or major intended outcome of this program.
- The organization's plans for achieving the stated goals/outcomes.
- If this program will result in a product (e.g., a podcast or documentary), explain the intended state of the product at the conclusion of the grant period.

If the project receives a Humanities Texas grant, your organization must be able to report on goals, outcomes, and products ninety days after the conclusion of the grant period.

Recommended: One to two narrative paragraphs

Program activities {Character limit: 2000}

Include a list of all program activities. If the program includes in-person programming, include the name and location of the site(s).

Refer to this document with examples of program activities. The activity should include date, activity, site, city, and estimated attendance.

Do you plan to charge fees for any program activities or products? If so, how much?* {Character limit: 250}

Audience {Character limit: 5000}

Provide a description of the intended audience(s) for the program. Please include the following:

- Whom will this program primarily serve?
- Will this program serve any special audiences or underserved communities?
- How will the intended audience benefit from this program?
- How has this program been designed with this audience in mind?

Recommended: One to two narrative paragraphs

Estimated attendance {Character limit: 8}

How many people will attend the exhibition and associated programming?

Evaluation {Character limit: 2000}

Describe plans for evaluating the program/project. If there will be opportunities for audience feedback, please describe.

HUMANITIES EXPERT AND SCHOLARS

Name of primary humanities expert {Character limit: 50}

If the exhibition includes programming such as a lecture, workshop, guided tour, or other presentation, please include the name of the lead humanities expert. Otherwise, type "N/A."

Role of humanities expert {Character limit: 2000}

Describe how the humanities expert will guide, support, and/or participate in the proposed program. Otherwise, type "N/A."

Participating scholars/experts {Character limit: 2000}

Include a list of any other participating scholars or experts that includes name, title, and role. Refer to this document for examples of the scholars/experts section.

PROMOTION

Promotion plans {Character limit: 5000}

Describe how the program will be promoted, with particular emphasis on how the intended audience(s) will be reached.

If this is a media project, include the broadcasting plans, proposals, and commitments.

Recommended: one to two narrative paragraphs with specific examples.

Crediting {Character limit: 1000}

The National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) requires that all funded programs credit Humanities Texas and the NEH. Please describe how you will credit/acknowledge the support of Humanities Texas and the NEH in your promotional materials.

BUDGET

Please include a budget summary and a detailed budget. The budgets must correspond to one another in both format and amounts.

Application budgets must reflect the entirety of the proposed program activity taking place during the grant period and must include at least a one-to-one cost-share (e.g., if you are requesting $2,000, the budget must demonstrate at least $2,000 in cash and/or in-kind cost- share).

Refer to our document on budget requirements for guidelines and instructions.

Budget Summary

Total grant request {Character limit: 20}

Cash cost-share {Character limit: 20}

In-kind cost-share {Character limit: 20}

Detailed Budget {File size limit: 5 MB}

Attach a detailed budget that includes a breakdown and description of every budget line item. You must use this detailed budget template.

This detailed budget example is included as a reference.

If you require assistance with the budget template, please email grants@humanitiestexas.org

If your budget has more rows than the normal budget allows, you may use this extended budget.

SUPPLEMENTARY MATERIALS

Timeline/Schedule/Agenda {File size limit: 8 MB}

Include a detailed timeline, schedule, and/or agenda for your program.

Refer to this document for examples of media project timelines and a public program agenda.

Letters of support {File size limit: 12 MB}

Include letters that indicate community support for this program. These should be letters by members of the community or audience that will be served.

Letters of support are not required for exhibition grant applications, but they may strengthen your proposal. All letters should be included in a single PDF file.

Include letters for media projects with broadcast commitments here.

Relevant program files {File size limit: 12 MB}

Upload other files relevant to the program.
