HUMANITIES TEXAS TEACHER PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WEBINAR SERIES

October 5  Native Americans to 1693  5:00–6:15 p.m.  F. Todd Smith, University of North Texas

October 12  Native Americans, 1716–1800  5:00–6:15 p.m.  Juliana Barr, Duke University

October 19  Spain in Texas, 1716–1800  5:00–6:15 p.m.  Jesús F. de la Teja, former Texas State Historian

October 26  Collapse of Spanish Texas, 1800–1820  5:00–6:15 p.m.  Andrew Torget, University of North Texas

November 9  Tejanos and Mexican Texas  5:00–6:15 p.m.  Andrés Tijerina, Austin Community College

November 16  Anglos and Colonization  5:00–6:15 p.m.  Gregg Cantrell, Texas Christian University

November 30  Road to Rebellion, 1830–1835  5:00–6:15 p.m.  Linda English, The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley

December 7  Connecting the Pieces for Students  5:00–6:15 p.m.  Andrew Torget, University of North Texas

Made possible with support from the State of Texas and the National Endowment for the Humanities.
HUMANITIES TEXAS TEACHER PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WEBINAR SERIES

February 1
5:00–6:15 p.m.
Annexation and Slavery
Andrew Torget, University of North Texas

February 8
5:00–6:15 p.m.
Road to the Civil War
Alice Baumgartner, University of Southern California

February 15
5:00–6:15 p.m.
The Civil War
Susannah J. Ural, University of Southern Mississippi

February 22
5:00–6:15 p.m.
Reconstruction
Ben Wright, The University of Texas at Dallas

March 1
5:00–6:15 p.m.
Understanding and Teaching the Red River War
Daniel J. Gelo, The University of Texas at San Antonio

March 22
5:00–6:15 p.m.
Cotton and Populists
Gregg Cantrell, Texas Christian University

March 29
5:00–6:15 p.m.
Cattle and Railroads
Deborah M. Liles, Tarleton State University

April 5
5:00–6:15 p.m.
The Age of Oil and the Early Twentieth Century
Jessica Brannon-Wranosky, Texas A&M University-Commerce

Made possible with support from the State of Texas and the National Endowment for the Humanities.